

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Integrity International Trade & Business Network and Mainseed Christian University Forge Strategic Partnership to Strengthen Christian Business and Marketplace Leadership

Randallstown, MD—April 28, 2025 – Integrity International Trade & Business Network (IITBN) is proud to announce a groundbreaking partnership with Mainseed Christian University (MCU), aimed at delivering greater value to the African Global Christian Chamber of Commerce & Industry. This collaboration will foster new opportunities for Christian business, government, faith, and marketplace leaders to engage, grow, and thrive in a network committed to excellence and integrity.

As a premier provider of integrated Business, Corporate, and Investor Services, IITBN continues to empower organizations by offering unparalleled expertise that enables clients to focus on what they do best—impacting the world through business development. With a shared commitment to service excellence and a drive to exceed expectations, IITBN remains dedicated to fostering a network of skilled professionals who embody values of integrity, knowledge, and leadership.

Mainseed Christian University, a recognized institution known for blending faith and education, shares this vision. MCU's mission is to nurture intellectual and spiritual growth while equipping students with the confidence and expertise to excel in their respective fields. Through this partnership, students and professionals alike will gain access to collaborative initiatives that integrate faith-based education with business leadership, ensuring they are prepared to navigate an ever-evolving marketplace.

Dr. Cheryl A. Hill, serving as a Global Advisor to the Christian Chamber of Commerce and Industry, expressed enthusiasm about this partnership, stating, "This collaboration represents a significant step in uniting Christian business leaders with faith-driven education, empowering them to lead with purpose and impact. IITBN and MCU's shared dedication to integrity and excellence will create a lasting legacy in the global marketplace."

Through this alliance, IITBN and MCU reaffirm their commitment to strengthening Christian business networks, advancing leadership opportunities, and fostering economic growth within faith-driven communities. As IITBN continues to enable organizations through world-class corporate services, and MCU remains steadfast in integrating faith and scholarship, this partnership stands as a beacon of innovation and collaboration for Christian leaders worldwide.

For more information about this partnership and upcoming opportunities, please contact: Ericka Crawford info@iitbn.org

About Integrity International Trade & Business Network (IITBN)

Integrity International Trade & Business Network (IITBN) is a multi-service specialist providing integrated Business, Corporate, and Investor Services. IITBN's expertise allows clients to focus on their mission of impacting the world through business development, offering solutions that exceed expectations and drive success.

About Mainseed Christian University (MCU)

Mainseed Christian University is a faith-based institution committed to providing high-quality, affordable education that integrates faith with scholarship. MCU is legally authorized by the Florida State Board of Independent Colleges and Universities (SBICU) with a religious exemption authority to offer degree programs across various disciplines, preparing graduates for leadership and impact in their fields.